Program Overview

In today’s business world, rapid change has become a fact. The increasing influence of the customer, the rise of data as a strategic asset, a reimagined competitive landscape, extended global reach, and many other evolutionary changes promise to transform the future of marketing. In this increasingly dynamic context, marketers need to stay on top of this shifting environment and gain a deep knowledge of the skills required to advance.

The Advanced Marketing Management program provides participants with a thorough understanding of the business landscape to articulate and predict which markets, products, services, or execution strategies will deliver growth. This diploma is crafted as a transformational journey, where participants accumulate marketing proficiencies through eight meticulously planned courses, extending over four sequential stages; analysis, strategic decisions execution, and evaluation.

The program is a unique opportunity for participants to gain the competencies they need to become disruptive marketing leaders who can generate value for their customers and growth for their organizations.
