FINANCE FOR NON-FINANCE MANAGERS

DECIPHERING THE LANGUAGE OF MONEY
Program Overview

In today’s business environment professionals need practical, working knowledge of corporate finance to make sound business decisions.

The Finance for Non-Finance Managers program is specifically designed for business owners and professionals with little or no accounting/financial technical knowledge, who need to understand the fundamentals of financial management and the tools and techniques used to make financial decisions in the corporate context.

The program is specifically built to develop professionals’ ability to read and analyze financial statements, as well as differentiate between the types of costs that could affect decision making. It will help them prepare budgets and forecasts for operations and develop models that answer short-run ‘what-if’ questions.
