Today's Graduate, Tomorrow's Economist

"The Master of Arts in economics program in economics was an ideal follow-up to my Bachelor of Arts at the AUC School of Business. The Master of Arts more than qualified me for my doctoral studies, where I felt I knew more advanced material than most of my cohort."

– Karim Abadir '85, '91 | Emeritus Professor in Financial Econometrics | Imperial College London

"I have become an economist not because of the exams I have passed and the books I have read, but rather through the capable professorship and sincere mentorship I received through the AUC School of Business economics program. The diverse backgrounds, rich experiences and dynamic interests of my professors helped shape my academic and professional ambitions."

– Sherif Fouda '09, '12 | Deputy Minister's Head of Technical Team | Ministry of Planning and Economic Development
