For the past century, AUC has been the region's leading English-language University, as well as the intellectual, social and cultural hub of the Arab world. AUC is proud to be a vibrant forum for spirited debate and global understanding between the Arab world and the West.

The University offers over 50 master's and PhD programs rooted in the American liberal arts tradition, encouraging critical and creative thinking. AUC provides small classes, professional development opportunities and various community outreach programs to a diverse student body representing more than 50 nationalities.

WHY EGYPT?

From Sufi dances to Coptic churches, European architecture to Mameluke mosques, Cairo is living testimony to millennia of intermingling cultures, religions and languages. Roughly one hour from Red Sea beaches, three hours from Alexandria and a short plane ride away from Luxor and Aswan, life in Cairo puts all of Egypt within reach. Cairo is also a gateway to Europe and the rest of the Arab world, with many major cities a short flight away.

One of the UN's six official languages, Arabic is the fifth most spoken language worldwide and nearly 100 million of these native speakers reside in Egypt. Whether you perfect your Modern Standard Arabic or immerse yourself in the Egyptian dialect, studying in Cairo is the perfect way to learn this incontestably vital language.

WHY AUC?

Accredited in the United States by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education (MSCHE) and in Egypt by the National Authority for Quality Assurance and Accreditation in Education (NAQAAE), AUC is an independent, not-for-profit, equal-opportunity institution.

AUC Press, the leading English-language publisher in Egypt and the region, publishes academic journals that offer students and faculty members the opportunity to share their research with an international audience.

According to the latest Eduniversal rankings, AUC comes out on top in Africa: best MBA and EMBA programs, best Master of Public Administration, best MSc in sustainable development, best MA in economics, and best MSc in finance. The School of Business's 5 Palmes of Excellence rating puts AUC among the top 100 most influential business schools globally. AUC was also named in the Princeton Review's Guide to Green Colleges for the fifth consecutive year.

Home to the largest English-language academic library in Egypt, three theaters and 13 cross-disciplinary research centers, our modern New Cairo campus is a visionary investment in the future of Cairo, Egypt and the region. Students can access a local bank branch, a health clinic and pharmacy, a grocery store, several food outlets and athletic facilities without leaving campus.
