WELCOME TO THE AUC Tahrir Campus Services

The historic AUC Tahrir campus is a landmark and cultural oasis in the heart of Cairo. A gathering place for lovers of literature, theatre and all forms of art and culture.

Inside the Historic Palace building are the Oriental Hall and Ewart Memorial Hall. Oriental Hall is decorated in traditional Islamic style and is frequently used for receptions, debates, press conferences and performances. Ewart has a long history of distinguished guests including Om Kolthoum, who preformed there in 1937. Prominent Egyptian intellectual Taha Hussein and top dignitaries, ambassadors and intellectuals from around the world have also congregated in the halls. Today, Ewart Memorial and Oriental Halls continue to serve as the prime downtown destination for a range of conferences, lectures, seminars and public events held by the University.

SUSTAINABILITY

The Office of Sustainability works to integrate environmental and social sustainability into the culture and structure of the University. The office strives to reduce the University’s use of natural resources and operating costs, and to instill a mindset for sustainability within the AUC community by supporting University programs in education, research and operations.

Top Five Ways You Can Help AUC Build The Culture Of Sustainability

1. Turn off lights before you leave.
2. Turn off electrical equipment when not in use.
3. Keep the campus clean; use recycling stations.
4. Ride the bus to campus.
5. Do not heat or cool spaces that are not being used.
