

Reported Contact with a Positive Case (Not in a Class)

Close contact with a COVID-19 positive case (not in a class) reported by the case or informed by the medical team

Case is isolated for one week

PCR Test

Tests are done on the fourth day from the onset of exposure

Positive PCR

Negative PCR

Inform the medical office and isolate for two weeks from the positive test date

Seek medical advice through medical insurance

Retest again after two weeks

Positive PCR

Negative PCR with No Symptoms

Retest again after one week

Can access campus and resume normal activities

Continues isolation for one week

Seek medical advice in case of symptoms presence through medical insurance

Have Symptoms

No Symptoms

Extended one more week of isolation and follow medical recommendations

Can access campus and resume normal activities