

AUC Tobacco Use Survey Report Spring 18

Prepared by: Office of Data Analytics and Institutional Research (DAIR)

AUC Tobacco Use Survey Report- SP 18

Executive Summary

Introduction

The American University in Cairo (AUC) launched a new initiative in spring 2018 semester to transform both of its campuses Tahrir and New Cairo, into completely smoke-free and tobacco-free environments by the start of the University's centennial celebration in February 2019.

Under the direction of President Francis Ricciardone, the Committee for a Tobacco-Free AUC has been working diligently to develop this campaign and plan for the changes to come. This diverse committee includes students, faculty, and staff and represents all major stakeholders on campus as well as non-smokers, people who have quit smoking, and several members who are currently smokers.

The purpose of the research conducted by the committee is to understand student, faculty and staff views on the smoking attitudes and behaviors, as well as gauge their views of the smoking policy. The data (feedback) from this survey will be used to develop an achievable strategy to effectively transition AUC into a Tobacco Free Campus by our centennial celebration next year. The aim is to make this tobacco-free transition as smooth and fair as possible.

Methodology

This survey has been developed by the Committee for a Tobacco-Free AUC comprised of AUC students, faculty, and staff in cooperation with the Office of Data Analytics and Institutional Research (DAIR). DAIR emailed 8,551 survey invitations to the entire AUC community on February 11, 2018, followed by one reminder sent on February 18, 2018. The survey closed on February 25, 2018. Out of the entire AUC community, 1931 responded to the survey for a response rate of 22.6 percent.

1	ask them to exhale somewhere far from me
2	Let them smoke unless it's a closed area
3	It depends whether i wanna join them or not!
4	Smoking and vaping are totally different. They are backed by governments as a progressive method to quit and studies proved they did not find any harm to others as is the case for second hand smoking.
5	Nothing
6	sometimes i call them out on how bad it is or if its bothering me, and sometimes i dont do anything about it
7	advise to quit smoking with clarification of its health hazards according to my medical career
8	Sometimes neutral
9	It depends on the situation. If I do not want to be exposed to secondhand smoke, I step away. If they are in my home or personal space, I ask them to put it out.
10	in they smoke in open area, they have right to make it, so, I move away if it bother me, not prevent them to do!!!!
11	I wouldn't move away. I'm sitting in the area if they want to smoke, they have to move away.
12	Sometimes if they blow the smoke to my direction I ask them to blow it somewhere else if I'm not smoking.
13	Ask them to blow the smoke in another direction
14	Even though it doesn't personally bother me much because I won't be with them for 24 hours but if it is a non-smoking area I would still point it out.
15	I just ask them to not directly blow the smoke towards me
16	avoid where the smoke is going
17	refer to a smoking area (if any)
18	If they are my friends I ask them to stop smoking while sitting with me and they accept it
19	and they agree to my request either blow away or stand in distance
20	It's annoying when its directly in my face or in a closed area, otherwise I don't mind
21	ask them not to blow the smoke in my face
22	Depends if we're indoors or outdoors
23	I do not frequent enclosed areas that allow smoking
24	I tell them that it is a bad habit and extremely bad for the health, I was able to stop smoking and that they can stop if they have a strong will
25	Tell them to stand in a way so that wind would blow their smoke away from me.
26	I don't have friends who smoke around me
27	I talk to them about how I quit and ask if they want help as it's incredibly difficult and a lot of people helped me.
28	my friend avoid smoking next to me
29	It depends. If we are not in an open air area, I would point this out and possibly suggest that they go outside. If it is an open air area, I probably would not care or would move away if it was really bothering me.
30	Tell them to let the smoke out the other way; away from me

31	I tell them to blow away, as I do when smoking around people
32	push him to smoke in the smoking area
33	Just ask them to puff in the opposite direction
34	Ask them to blow away the smoke
35	I do not have friends who smoke
36	show signs of annoyance
37	advise them to quit
37	I usually leave
39	Difficult to implement
40	NA
41	Nothing
42	Open the door for ventilation in case it happens in a closed room
43	Nothing
44	Lecture them!
45	I make a comment to dissuade (friends) from smoking; but if it's strangers, I usually just give them a "look" and/or move away
46	Take a side where the smoke doesn't cross by me
47	at times, I try to explain that smoking is really bad for their health and for those who are in their company
48	Ask them to blow smoke in opposite direction
49	It depends on the type of smoke. The smell of shisha and vapes for example don't bother me, but the smell of cigarettes and tobacco bothers me
50	most of my friends are non-smokers

1	Depends on the area, if it is an open air place then i have no right to ask them to leave I usually don't stay around smokers whether sitting on a bench or just standing; however, most of my friends do smoke, so I just stand opposite to them or perhaps leave them if they are not really my friends. As long as the smoker isn't smoking in an enclosed area, I think I will adapt to position myself in a way not to be bothered by tobacco's scenet and smoke.
2	Let them smoke, unless it's a closed area
3	We could have separated areas for both smokers and non-smokers
4	Same as the comment above. My reaction differs depending on the type of smoke/vapor.

6	i don't do anything, or if its bothering me i move away
7	In nonsmoking area
8	Depends on the situation
9	Is it in open area or close area!!!!!!
10	Ask them to smoke the air away from me
11	It depends
12	Ask them for a cigarette if I don't have any.
13	If I am very bothered and it is a public open space, I would simply get away.
14	refer to a smoking area (if any)
15	and they also have manners and they put it off or smoke in different direction
16	I know what I indicated are passive aggressive, but I am a little conflict shy (with friends -out of courtesy and with strangers for safety reasons -as I do not know how they may react-)
17	Depends on the situation. If I'm eating for instance, I move away from the smoke, or ask them to wait till I'm done eating.
18	I'm never too close to a stranger for it to bother me
19	push him to smoke in the smoking area
20	give them the look
21	Nothing
22	If it is in a closed area or a building i report to authorities, however, if it is in open air then it doesn't bother me
23	I try to move away but am not able to sometimes
24	if I have my kids with me I would move away otherwise I would let it slide
25	NA
26	tell them not tp smoke
27	NA
28	Nothing
29	Nothing
30	I usually start coughing because I have an allergy and if they're sensible enough they put it out or move away
31	If it's a repeated violation in a particular space I'll report it, but not just one time
32	Nothing
