Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Iceland, Ireland Italy, Latvia, Liechtenstein, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, the Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden and Switzerland) and the United Kingdom. (Transit passengers are included)

- Permanent residents of the US, immediate family members of US citizens and travelers on A-1, A-2, C-2, C-3, E-1, G-1, G-2, G-3, G-4, NATO-1 through NATO-4, and NATO-6 visas are exempt from regional restrictions and will be allowed to return.
- All international travelers who are permitted to enter should expect heightened screening measures and will be asked to self-quarantine for 14 days after their return.
- Travel between the US and Canada, as well as between the US and Mexico, will remain closed to non-essential travel. "Essential travel may continue"
- Passengers holding visa type B1 or B2 or any other type of visa:
The restrictions only pertain to B1 / B2 visa holders that have been present in certain countries in the past 14 days. Those countries include China, Iran, EU/Schengen area, UK, Republic of Ireland, and Brazil. So essentially, if those B1B2 visa holders were NOT present in any of those countries during the 14 days prior to travel to the US, there are no restrictions.
- Passenger holding EU citizen (Schengen area)
Again, the restrictions are on where the passenger is coming from, rather than their citizenship in this case.
