

Student Agreement to abide by the Code of Academic Ethics

AUC is committed to academic integrity and ethical conduct. The AUC Code of Academic Ethics allows members of the academic community to feel that their ideas will be respected, discussed and evaluated in an atmosphere free of prejudice and bias. By committing ourselves to the highest standards of academic integrity at AUC, we also reaffirm our commitment to the larger communities of Egypt and the world, so that it can be said that graduates of AUC are respected for their honesty and integrity, in addition to excelling in their fields of work and activity.

As a student and member of the AUC community:

- a. I have understood and will comply with the AUC Code of Academic Ethics.
- b. I will uphold the highest standards of academic integrity in all of my work at AUC.
- c. I will uphold the highest standards of academic integrity by refusing to tolerate violations of the AUC Code of Academic Ethics as specified in the Definition of Standards. When any violation of the code is suspected, I will let my conscience guide my decision about whether I will speak to, or report, anyone I believe to have committed a violation of this Code.
- d. I will respect the rights of others, which includes the obligation to refrain from conduct that violates or adversely affects the rights of other members of the AUC community.
- e. I understand that I will be subject to penalties should I commit any violations of the AUC Code of Academic Ethics.
- f. I will foster an atmosphere of academic integrity among my fellow students.

As a member of the student body at the American University in Cairo I am committed to this AUC Code of Academic Ethics.

(Signed and Dated)

(Please submit the signed form to the Office of Student Development, Wallace Building, Greek Campus, Mail Code 222.)