Introduction

This is the second issue of an annual series of AUC faculty publications which started in 2006. An isolated issue, however, was published for the academic year 1982-83 by I. Moyer Hunsberger, the then Vice President for Academic Affairs and Dean of the Faculty, who wrote in his introduction: “… the reputation of a faculty member among the community of scholars in his/her discipline is enhanced by publication, as is the reputation of his/her university.”

The annual series of Faculty Publications have a number of goals:

• Showcase faculty research productivity
• Increase the visibility of the research, scholarly and creative works by AUC faculty
• Help in the preparation of news releases to the media about new research, in efforts to raise the profile of the university and develop deeper connections with the local community
• Serve as a vehicle for faculty members to get to know about each others' work and interests
• Help people who look for faculty with expertise in a certain area
• Increase interdisciplinary and collaborative research among AUC faculty
• Emphasize the importance of research as an integral part of faculty responsibilities
• Encourage faculty to increase their research productivity
• Serve as a database and historical record of AUC faculty publications

The purpose, however, is not for this list of publications to serve as the sole criterion by which a faculty member is judged. The university does not consider the quantity of publications to be a substitute for the quality; and while a faculty member may not have published this year, he or she may very well have had several publications in previous years. In addition, the various statistics for the schools and departments are provided in this publication for the record and should not be used - independent of other factors - for comparative purposes. It is also acknowledged that the expected number and type of publications published by a faculty member vary greatly by discipline.

The Faculty Publications 2007 was compiled from soft copies provide by AUC faculty through their respective school deans. Every effort has been made to make this list as accurate and complete as possible. A draft of this list has been checked for accuracy by the faculty, school deans and other units. I would like to thank Basma El Maabady, at the Vice Provost's Office, for her help in the preparation of this document.

Like the 2006 list, this one contains only faculty who published in 2007. In future years, all faculty names may be listed regardless of whether they have publications. An effort has been made to provide a list which is consistent throughout the university in terms of bibliographic style and format. This style is shown on the following page. Please report any error you find in this list to the Office of the Vice Provost.
